

----- BLOX0RZ -----

This game is a clone of the Miniclip game: Bloxorz.

The following are the controls:

Up: Move the block up

Down: Move the block down

Right: Move the block right t/T: Top view of the board

Mouse movement: helicopter view of the board

S/W: Zoom in/out camera

A/D: Move camera lefft/right

n/N: Return the block back to normal

Red floor block is a fragile block, i.e., the block falls through the board if it steps on the red floor block, while green floor block is a switch which activates the bridge. Finally, brown floor block is the goal block, stepping on which the game moves on to the next level, or the player wins the game.
